RECORD

SEASON 2018

The official statistical history of the AFL game, AFL Record Season 2018, is now available.

This year's edition (1248 pages) has details on the draft, profiles on every player in the competition – from rookies to superstars – detailed statistics on every club, and a history of all finals and award winners.

$39.95

Also in this year's edition:

- A club-by-club comprehensive preview of the 2018 season
- An in-depth review of all key events, facts and figures of the 2017 season as well as the 2017 NAB AFL Draft
- A detailed section on the NAB AFL Women's competition, including player profiles
- The 2018 fixture explained

AFL Record Season 2018 is the 23rd edition of what has become the statistical bible of the AFL. It is edited by experienced football journalist Michael Lovett, who has been covering football for more than 40 years.

The 2018 cover features Richmond star Dustin Martin, who continues the tradition of the reigning Brownlow medallist appearing on the cover.

It is on sale at newsagents and book stores nationally for $39.95 from Monday, February 12.
