Jackson's Story

Bringing together Jackson's Footy & Jackson's Goal in one big book

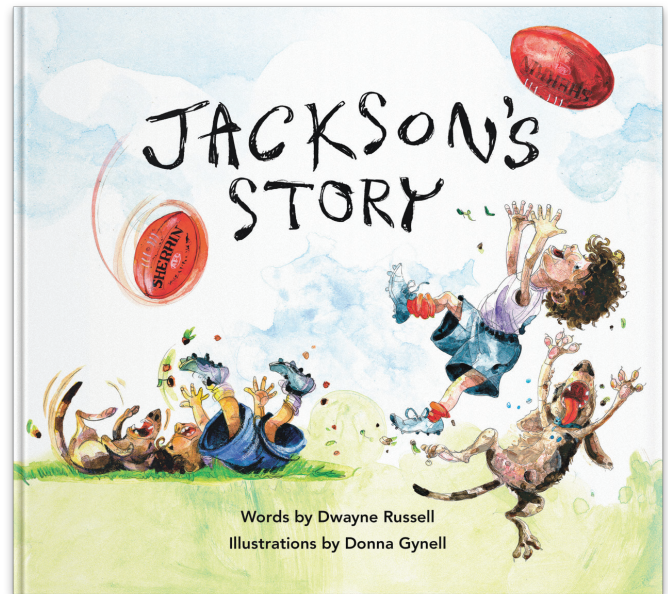

by Dwayne Russell and Donna Gynell

RRP $12.95, On sale now

TITLE DESCRIPTION

Off the back of the success of the kids footy picture books, Jackson's Footy and Jackson's Goal, Slattery Media Group release Jackson's Story, a compendium of the two stories of Australian Footy loving, Jackson.

These two books, published in 2010 and 2011, delighted youngsters across Australia. These vibrant and action-packed stories about a young boy named Jackson, who loves Australian Football. He practises his skills in the backyard, by himself, all day and all night. He dodges, bounces and handballs. He marks, tackles and kicks the footy, all under the watchful eye of his Mum. Jackson is ecstatic when he makes the team, but will he remember everything he's learnt along the way when he plays his first game with the Bears?

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Dwayne Russell is a former player, who played for Port Adelaide in the SANFL and Geelong in the AFL. He now works as a sports commentator and radio host. Donna Gynell is the illustrator of the international bestseller, Arthur, and has specialised in children's books for more than 25 years.

This beautifully illustrated read-along storybook is perfect for mums and dads to read to their young footy fans. It's ideal for children aged 2-7 years.
