People who follow various pursuits often have ultimate goals in the achievements of the pursuits. For example, a musician may wish to play a particular piece of music and often to perform that piece. A chef may hanker for a particular bite, a bit that he is so sure he can make. A chef may wish to own a restaurant. A chef may wish to own a restaurant. My Green World

Survival of Fittest is real concept

Docker's book

A new publication, Fremantle Dockers: An Illustrated History by Les Everett, with forward by Mat Parrish, is being released this week by Slattery Media Group. Recommended price: $49.95.

Op Shop Week

Melburnians are being invited to shop at charity shops this week for National Op Shop Week to be held from August 24-31.

For Diggers

Victoria Cross recipient Keith Payne and the National Diggers' program to help modern veterans.

Fairfax sorry

Fairfax's Editor of The Sydney Morning Herald, Darren Goodsell, who originally defended a cartoon that was offensive to Jews, has now apologised. "It was wrong to publish that cartoon," he said. "We're sorry." He has also adopted the name.

King Richard

King Richard - The Story of Dick Reynolds, by Dan Edery, is a new book released in time for the AFL finals series. Reynolds won three Brownlow Medals playing for Footy Show, but his adoration of Slattery, is on the market for $39.95 per copy.

Green World

My Green World, a Melbourne wildlife organisation, is hosting its inaugural fundraising gala event 'A Wild Night'.

Season lunch

The Melbourne Chamber Orchestra is launching its latest project, 'A Wild Night', on Thursday, August 28 at the Sofitel Melbourne on Collins.

'Bent' opens

'Bent', a play by Martin Sherman, opens on Thursday, September 4 at Theatre Works, St Kilda.

King Richard - The Story of Dick Reynolds

King Richard - The Story of Dick Reynolds, by Dan Edery, is a new book released in time for the AFL finals series. Reynolds won three Brownlow Medals playing for Footy Show, but his adoration of Slattery, is on the market for $39.95 per copy.

Wilderness

He has his own radio show and co-stars with Fanny Brice. He also appeared on The KRAFT Music Hall, The Bikers and the Old Gold Show.

Frank Morgan loved sailing and won a yacht race between Los Angeles and Honolulu.

He enjoyed the outdoors and owned a huge cattle ranch in California. He recorded many children's stories including the popular Gossamer Wump which was a story about a young girl who seems to play the triangle.

On September 18, 1949 Frank Morgan suffered a heart attack and died in his sleep at home in Beverly Hills, Los Angeles.

Frank Morgan is buried in the Greenwood Cemetery in Brooklyn and his headstone bears the family name of Wepman. He was inducted into the Hollywood Walk of Fame in 1997 and his George passed away in 2003.

The Time Tunnel - with Nick Le Souef & Mark Wyndham

Sundays at 8.20pm on 96.5FM That's Entertainment - 96.5FM

96.5FM is streaming on the internet. To listen, go to www.infernfm.org.au and follow the prompts.

Frank Morgan loved sailing and won a yacht race between Los Angeles and Honolulu.

He enjoyed the outdoors and owned a huge cattle ranch in California. He recorded many children's stories including the popular Gossamer Wump which was a story about a young girl who seems to play the triangle.

On September 18, 1949 Frank Morgan suffered a heart attack and died in his sleep at home in Beverly Hills, Los Angeles.

Frank Morgan is buried in the Greenwood Cemetery in Brooklyn and his headstone bears the family name of Wepman. He was inducted into the Hollywood Walk of Fame in 1997 and his George passed away in 2003.